Meet the Author

Anna Kirschberg

"Beanstalk Books decodable readers build reading confidence and reading success for all children learning to read."

Where it all began...

Beanstalk Books is a publishing company that specializes in decodable books. The company was founded by children's author and co-founder of Junior Learning, Anna Kirschberg. After 10 years of developing phonics based resources and books, Anna has created a trusted brand of decodable books that deliver transformative reading experiences worldwide. Anna has used her expertise in phonics based instruction and has set about developing purely decodable reading books around a phonics sequence, for young children and older, struggling readers. Beanstalk Books decodable readers are built on the principles of the science of reading and supports the worldwide movement of evidence based reading instruction.

This table shows all letter sounds covered in decodable range.

Letter sounds already covered are in black, while letter sounds currently being learnt are highlighted in black boxes.

Letter sounds not yet covered are in gray.

Any tricky words encountered in the text are listed below the table.

The image shows a young girl with blonde hair in pigtails, smiling broadly. She is holding an open book titled "Sam the Ram". The book features a table of letter sounds with some letters highlighted in black boxes, and a list of "Tricky Words" including "the". A callout bubble says "Point and say the tricky word." At the bottom left, there's a circular badge with "Letters & Sounds". On the right, a small sheep illustration is shown. Arrows point from the text above to specific parts of the book, explaining the coding system.
